

Abstract

A process for increasing the optical purity of a mixture of enantiomers of mefloquine, used a substantially single enantiomer of a O,O-di-p-aroyletartaric acid as 5 a resolving agent.